I am not sure that I have - or can find? - a hard copy. If somebody could loan a copy of the bylaws and covenants, I will be happy to type them up for the homeowners association. I'll even post them on my website, if the association would like that. I think it's important to make these items easily obtainable and would like to help with that if I can.

You've made the right contact, however, there is no digital copy.

Would you happen to have a digital copy of the HOA bylaws and covenants? Or perhaps you know who I could contact for it?

Thanks!
